READ: 1 CORINTHIANS 11:17-31

Start thinking. Get into the Word.

In Corinthians, we see a people that lacked covenant, fellowship, and honor at the table. They lost faith in the act of the Lord's supper partaking, but not living it out. As Paul spoke to Corinth, he realized there was much division among the people. What they forgot is that we are all one people--no matter socio-economic class, race, or gender. We all should take heed to this and clean up matters of the heart.

Read and discuss how these scriptures apply to the message Proverbs 4:23, 1 John 3:20, Psalms 26:2, Psalms 51:10, Matthew 26:27-28, Jeremiah 31:34, Psalm 34:18, Matthew 5:8, Isaiah 53:5, Psalm 73:26, John 6:48-51, revelation 19:9, Solomon 8:6.

Start sharing. Choose a question(s) to create openness.

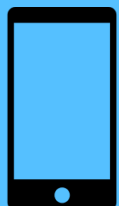

- Have you ever been apart of a family or organization that experienced division? How did you get through it?
- What matters of the heart do you need to clean up? (hardened heart, hurts, etc.)
- What are you doing to guard your heart? (will understanding mind worry emotions, etc.)
- As you reflect on the message, what is one principle that stood out as helpful, insightful, or difficult to grasp?
- Which aspect do you need to work on pertaining to fully living for Christ? (reveal, purify, heal, strengthen, seal)
- How can you help others around you fully live for Christ?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

- Ask God to show you the things in your life that keep you divided from Him and others.
- Pray for each other, community, church, pastors, and nation.

Start doing. Commit to step out and live it out this week.

- Feast on the goodness of the Lord and commune with Him.
